

Phlebotomy Certification

- A High School Diploma or High School Equivalency certificate is required.
- Tuition: $2,800 – Scholarships may be available through our partnership with America’s Job Centers of California. Please call Edith Pacheco at (916) 294-9107 for more information. Payment plans also available. Ask for details at the adult school.
- Tuition includes textbook, voucher for scrubs, supplies, CPR, extern site, starter kit, and certificate. Additional costs: liability insurance, drug and background screening, and any needed immunizations, including the Covid-19 vaccination.
- Cancellation policy: no refunds if student drops from program, or if student cancels registration less than 2 weeks prior to class starting. There is a non-refundable deposit of $300 required at registration.
- Class must be passed with an 80% or higher.
- Fingernails must be clean, no polish of any type, short in length (not to extend past the edge of the fingertip).
- Drug testing and background check is required to fulfill requirements of the certification course.
- 40-80 hours of externship required for certification
- Pass both NHA and CPT-1 state exams

